PROPOSALS FOR CANTONING

If this Disposition of the Five Additional Company's is approved, the following Advantages may arise.

As the above Countries are mostly inhabited by Roman Catholicks, and people disaffected to his Majesty's Government, which with the Remoteness of their Situation, makes it very difficult to procure certain Intelligence of any Treasonable practices that may be carrying on amongst them.

'Tis humbly thought if Detachments were quartered there, commanded by Active and Trusty Officers, the Government might have an early and distinct account of any Treasonable practices that might be carrying on in those parts by Foreign or Domestic Enemies, and would not only overawe Sculking Rebels, and French Emissaries, but would effectually prevent the frequent Impositions of false Alarms, purposely hatched by the Invention of the disaffected, to support that Wicked Spirit among the Jacobite Party in this Country.

Knoidart, Moidart, Arisaig and Glenfinnan are almost Void of Cover or provisions, which makes it impracticable at present for any but Highlanders to subsist there.

'Tis therefore humbly proposed that the Detachment at Bernera, should be ordered to join their Company's at Fort Augustus, and 100 Highlanders, sent to Bernera, from which place proper Detachments may be made to Knoidart, Moidart, Arisaig, and Glenfinnan, being from Experience and the Many Bays and Landing Places on that Coast, the most to be suspected for landing Money, Arms, or French Emissaries.

Those Detachments may be relieved every fortnight, and supplied with necessaries from Bernera.

That Genl. Bland would order the following Officers to Edinburgh, to concert with and be informed of every particular, that may be necessary for Rendering their Service effectual, so that there may be no hindrance or difficulties Started when he shall judge proper to order them to this Cantonement.

Capt. Campbell at Inverara.

Capt. Menzies at Taybridge by Crief.

Lieut. Forbes at Tarland by Aberdeen.

Lieut. Campbell at Ruthven, and the Officer Commanding Sir Henry Monroe's Company in Ross-shire.

IN THE WESTERN HIGHLANDS.

I humbly beg leave to make the following Observations.

As the Service proposed must entirely depend on the Spirit, Vigilance, and Activity of the Officers, I know from the Experience of those people, there's no consideration engages them more to one's Service than a seeming confidence and familiarity in recommending a diligent performance of their duty. And to explain to them what a favourable opportunity this is, for every Man to distinguish himself, and to assure them that whatever Merit they can plead, from faithfully discharging their Duty on this Service, shall be recommended by you in the Strongest Terms to his Majesty, mentioning each particular person, and recommending them for a Mark of his Royal Favour.

It will be absolutely necessary to shew them the necessity there is of having constant Patroles, from the several Stations through those Countries.

The Benefit reaped by Patroles since last Spring, from the Detachments to prevent Depredations, shews plainly their good effect.

How soon the posts are fixed the Commanding Officer at each station is to endeavour to ingratiate himself in the favours of some Person in his Neighbourhood, by giving him a Reward, or filling him Drunk with Whisky, as often as he may judge proper, which I'm confident is the only way to penetrate into the Secrets of these people.

The Officers Commanding Company's from the Reports made them will soon discover whether the good effects of this, will Balance the small Expence that may attend it.

As all Disbursements on this Service will be punctually paid, 'Tis recommended to the Officers to shew all possible frugality.

All outposts to send weekly Reports to the Officers commanding Company's, those in the Isles excepted, who are to report as often as occasion offers, or the Emergency of the Services requires.

All officers commanding Company's on the Main land to send weekly reports, to you by Post, or Express, of the Patroles sent, the Countries they went through, and mentioning all Extraordinary that shall happen.

As Capt. Campbell of Inveran will have the Comm^d. of those Company's, 'Tis recommended to order him immediately to Edin^r. to communicate this Scheme as he from his knowledge, of the Country, and Attachment to the Govern^{mt}. is the properest person to give the necessary Information, for rendering this intended Service effectual.

512 PROPOSALS FOR CANTONING IN WESTERN HIGHLANDS.

Before the Company's March from their present Quarters, each Man to be provided with 24 Rounds of Ammunition, which the Officers are to review frequently, to prevent its being embezzled or lost from carelessness.

After it is agreed upon, what number of Men will be sufficient to be sent to each of the within mentioned places, those remaining may be disposed of, in Rannoch, Dalnacardoch, Dalwhinnie, Ruthven and Garvimore, under the Comm^d. of Ensign Campbell of Capt. Mackay's Company, he being a person particularly acquainted in those parts.

The post of Taybridge to be occupied from the Reg^t. at Perth.

Decem^r. 4th, 1747.

Report. Sept. 4th 1749

Since my last nothing has happened in my district as to Thieving, but some men were taken prisoners by the Moving parties for wearing the Highland dress. Two of the name McDonald, servants to McDonald of Greenfield, are sent prisoners to fort Augustus, one Duncan McCloud living in Glenelg is for the same sent prisoner to Bernera and Angus Cameron a servant to Cameron of Glen Nevis at Fort William. No other extraordinatys (sic).
Sept. 18

In the Neighbourhood of my Command, nothing extraordinary since my last. The Communication to the distant posts have been interrupted this fortnight past by the greatness of the Waters. everything in my district is quiet & the Country as yet have conformed to the Laws.

Report October 16 1749.

That part of the Country in my district seem hitherto to have Conform'd to the Laws, none appearing in any part in the Highland Dress; And as to thieving, it seems entirely to be abolished from amongst them, but whether owing to the National disposition or our situation amongst them I cannot determine but am inclined to believe the latter has the greatest sway: But the Bad weather is now approaching when it will be out of their power to exert themselves that way, and I shall use my best endeavours to prevent any attempts of that kind.

Oct 29

Nothing extraordinary has happened within the limits of my Command, the situation of the Troops, has prevented thieving in this part of the Highlands, as the best in this Country acknowledges. I have received your order to the Route of Marching on the 10th Nov. next, The Command at Strath Cluny was removed according to your orders to Kintail, one man of that party was lost crossing the waters. nothing more extraordinary.

Report. June 11, 1750. Glen Leogh.

From the Head Quarters of Glen Leogh I visited the several posts in my district, viz^t

From Glen Leogh to Bonarkaig 6 miles, a post of great Consequence as I am inform'd, but not Mentioned in the Route, where I have posted 1 Copl. and 4 men who scour'd the mountains Betwixt it and the head of Loch Arkaig, on the 5th Instant and found all well.

From Loch Arkaig to Tray in South Morra 19 Miles (where Lt. Maxwell Commands). Lieut. Maxwell visited several posts in his district, and gave me a report.

From Tray in South Morra to Glen Finnan 25 miles where Ensign Patton Commands. Ensign Patton on his arrival at Glen Finnan, found three fire locks Hid under a Rock, one of which was loaded and one wanting a lock. His party scoured the Mountains and met a party from Loch Arkaig at the Head of Glen Pain on the 6th Inst. and found all well. he has likewise posted 1 Corpl. and 3 men at the Head of Loch Veol, who are to Corresponde once a Week with the party, and once a Week to scour the Mountains.

From Glen Finnan to Strontian 16 Miles (where Ensign Cay Commands). On the 31st past a party was demanded from Ensign Say, consisting of 1 Corpl. and 6 men, by Mr. McLean to go in pursuit of two Cows, stolen from him, the party set out at 10 o'clock forenoon and did not return till 9 o'clock Night and Brought no prisoner the party followed the track to the Lands of Ardgour, where they Lost the tract, and got a note for the Value of the Cows.

Ensign Cay's Party scour'd the Mountains, on the 3rd Inst. towards the Head of Loch Sheil and found all well.

Ensign Irving who Commands the Moving patrols, has been his Circuit by the following posts, Viz^t, from Glen Leogh up Arkaig Side to the Head of the Loch Arkaig. From thence thro' Glen Dissery and along the side of Loch Morra, to Tray in Morra, from thence thro' Glen Dissery and Glen Pain, to Glenfinnan, from thence by Loch Shiel, to the Head of Loch Dolet and to Strontian, from thence thro' Glen Tarbot to the Current of Argour and along Lochaber side to Glen Leogh, and found all well.

Price of provision pretty reasonable.

Lieut. Maxwell's Report

Head Quarters. Tray in South Morra.

Kinlochoom where there a serj^t. and 5 men is a Glen at the Head of Loch Hoom, which is a fine Bay Running about 10 Miles up the Country from the Sea some parts, three miles broad, enclos'd by very high hills the Head of the Loch is Computed 8 miles from Bernera; about 4 Miles down the Loch Lies Glen Barrisdale, where old Barrisdale Lives. spoke with him and gave him a Copy of my advertisement, which he said he would explain to His people and make them Obey it. This Glen is about one Mile Long with a small river running thro' it, from this ascended very High Mountains and Rocks for two Miles, and came down into another Glen call'd Glen Dulachin about 5 miles Long when there is a fresh Water lake about one Mile long, from which runs a River about 3Miles, and empties itself in Loch Nevis a Large Arm of the Sea which divides Knoidart from North Morra, this Loch is in some places 6 Miles Broad and 4 Long, on the North Side of it stand the Ruins of young Barrisdale's house, which was Burnt Down, in the Year 1746 . Near this lies Knap where I cross'd the Nevis to a place Call'd Mullig about 5 miles over, from thence march'd over Mountains but near the Sea, about 6Miles, when I came to Bayorat on the side of Loch Morra where there is a Corpl. and 4 men there is a house built for the soldiers last year, Loch Morra is a Large fresh water Loch, in which there is several Islands from one of which Lord Lovat retir'd on seeing Capt Fergusons Boat brought into the Lake in 1746. Here is a good deal of wood thro' which we pas't, from Bayorat we march'd down the side of the Loch, and cros'd a small river which Runs from it into the Sea and came to South Morra where I waited upon the Laird of Morra and he is call'd, and gave him likewise a Copy of the advertisement which he promis'd to obey and make his people do so likewise. This Gentleman is very serviceable to all my parties round him in making the Country people supply them with what they can afford at reasonable prices. From this I pass'd on to Tray, a small Village about 6 Miles from Bayorat, where I stay myself with a corpl. and 6 men, about 2 miles farther Lys Keppoch in Arrasaig, another little Village where is a Serjeant and five men. These are all my stations and from Kinlochoom to Keppoch cross the Lochs is about 25Miles and round the Lochs reckon'd 50 Miles and upwards. In all this Circuit nothing material happen'd, the people are very Quiet and no thefts committed this summer or any complaints made.

Report. June 26, 1750. Glen Leogh.

Since my last of the 12th Inst. I have received the following Reports from the posts in my district.

June 21

Lieut. Maxwell commanding the party at Tray in South Morrer acquaints me that all our people in his district have been very Dilligent and regularly went their Patroles, but found nothing extraordinary. Mr. Maxwell took a Patrole himself thro' greatest part of the Bounds prescribed him, and found nothing worth observation, only saw at a distance two men in Highland Dress nigh the house of one Allister McDonald at the Head of Loch Nowa, whom he pursued but could not apprehend as they got into a wood, he is inform'd one of the offenders is son to the above Allister McDonald.

June 23

Ensign Cay writes from Strontian, that some days since the Laird of Kingerloch sent to him that he had lost five Cows more, but as he had heard no Tidings of them, and no Track having been rais'd he could not pretend to send any men in quest of them, that all is well in his district, and all Orders have been comply'd with.

June 22

Ensign Patton's report from Glen Finnan. All is well and the men under his Command having gone the regular Patroles as directed.

Ensign Irving who Commands the moving Patrole return'd to Glen Leogh on the 23rd Inst., having visited all the posts in my district, and made his report that all was well, having observ'd nothing worth troubling you with the detail of.

Report. July 17, 1750.

Ensign Cay Commanding at Strontian Reports to me that a party was demanded from him by one Ronald McDonald, who is tacksman to Glenallidill, to go in pursuit of three Cows stolen from him, the party was accordingly sent, who found two cows in a fold on the Lands of Kingerloch, in the Shire of Argyle, with some more cows belonging to thee undernamed Men, who are sent prisoners to the Sheriff of the above Shire, at Inverary. Donald McAchran, Angus Donald, Hector and John McLean, with John McLean Jun^r, nothing extraordinary from any other detachment.

August 12

I have procur'd a list of Thieves within my district. I order'd the moving patrole under the Command of ensign Irvine from Glen Lioigh to scoure the Mountains to the Head of Loch Arkaig and Glen Desery. Ensign Irvine return'd with his posts the 2nd Inst. with two prisoners which two Thieves, Miles Macmillan taken in GlenDesery and John McPhie taken at the Head of Loch Arkeg, I have sent to Inverness, with Alex. McDonald and Donald McDonald to prosecute them for Sixty Goats stolen in the year 1748. The above prisoners were committed to the Goal of Inverness by the Sheriff and the party returned to Glen Lioigh on the 8th Inst. Nothing extraordinary has happen'd since last report.

Report. August 27, 1750. Glen Lioigh.

Lieut. Maxwell Commanding at Tray in South Morar reports that his patrols from Kinlochoom saw a man in arms, but on the fellow seeing them he made to the Mountains, but was pursued so Close, that he was oblig'd to throw down his firelock which they took up but could not come up with the man, it is in Tower Place and in very good order, nothing extraordinary from any other Posts..

Sept. 7

Lieut. Maxwell being inform'd that some people with Arms, were seen in his district, he went in pursuit of them through Arrasaik the two Morras Knydart and part of Glen Lye, he at last came up with three men who had arms, but pretended a rite to carry them, one was McLeod of Arnisdale an except officer his Brother is an officer in the Dutch Service and the third a servant of Arnisdale, the Brother produced a permit sign'd Norman McLeod and informs me that several men carry arms in his neighbourhood with such perimits, one sign'd Eneas McIntosh which was in the Custody of one McDonald son of the Late Keppoch who L^l Maxwell apprehended with a pistol by his side - he adds that the hall at Kinlochoom was quite in Ruins and that Mr. McLeod refusing to repair it, he is under a necessity of getting it done himself.

Ensign Cay Commanding at Strntian has sent me a List and description of five Cows which were stolen from Kingerloch given him by that Laird to be distributed among my Party. Nothing else extraordinary.

Report. September 24, 1750. Glen Lioigh.

Lieut. Maxwell in His letter of the 20 Instant, Complains of McLeod of Arnisdale mentioned in my Last, as harbouring and concealing an attained Rebel, viz.: the eldest son of Barrisdale notwithstanding the said McLeod is an officer in the Excise. I thought it my Duty to Inform you of this, he reports nothing extraordinary.

Ensign Cay from Strontian reports all well in his district.

Ensign Patton from Glenfinnan, reports nothing extraordinary.

Ensign Irving reports that in his patrol he mett nothing extra -- only saw two men with Phillibegs on, whom he persued, but they getting into a Hutt, mixing with others and Dropping the Phillibeg before he could get in, he could not prove who wore that Dress, however in order to Terrify them he seiz'd two Men, pinion'd them and march'd them away prisoners, and after some time dismissed them as he had no Proof. The Sergeant Commanding the party at the Head of Loch Arkeg sent me a younger mare on the 16 which was brought to him by Cameron of Glen Dessery w^{ch} was a stray. The Serjt. kept (sic) it three days, giving proper intimation to the adjacent, but nobody Claiming it I deliver'd it to the Sheriff substitute at Marryburgh.

Report. November 5, 1750. Glen Lioigh.

Lieut. Maxwell from Tray, in Morar, informs me, he has made several attempts since the last report to send out Patrols, but they were prevented by the snow, and wth much difficulty returned to Quarters. He adds, that he is assured that it will not be in his Power to patrol any more this season.

Authorised by the Route brought by the last post, I have sent Mr. Maxwell Orders to repair his Party forwth to F. W^m, as his present Situation is much that he is liable to be intercepted by the Snows, which fall very thick every night. From the other posts in my District I have nothing extraordinary, but the general Reports of the weather's becoming inclement. However as none are absolutely prevented patrolling, except Lieut. Maxwell I have not call'd any other in, and shall make a proper Use of the Directionary Powers confer'd on me by the Route.

Nov. 19.

On the 15 Inst. All the Parties under my Coãnd (lit) (Command?) arrived safe at F. W^m. except Lieut. Maxwell, who with his Detach^{mt}, came in the day following. They brought me nothing extraordinary to report.
